Visva-Bharati University UG Admission Process 2023

The admission process will start after the declaration of CUET result 2023. To conduct the Visva-Bharati University UG Admission 2023, the university will prepare a subject-based rank list. The list will be made depending on the scores candidates would get in the CUET UG 2023 examination. For admission to a performance-based course like BSc Honours in Physical Education and Sports Sciences, Yoga Art and Science offered at Vinaya Bhavana, subjects of Kala and Sangeeta Bhavana etc, the merit list will be prepared considering an equal weightage (50:50) on the CUET score and the marks of departmental admission tests. Therefore, the candidates must ensure that they obtain a good score in the entrance exam so that they can be ahead in the competition. For scoring good, they should prepare a CUET 2023 Study Plan and Preparation Strategy.

Admission Guidelines for Visva-Bharati University UG Admission 2023

Following guidelines must be followed to attain a successful admission:

The university will arrange round-wise counselling sessions for the selected candidates which they must attain on the stipulated date and time.

As previously mentioned, the dates and other details related to the merit list and counselling will be notified at the university's admission portal.

Candidates will have to produce original mark sheets of previous qualifying examinations during counselling or admission time.

Original copies of other required documents along with their self-attested photocopies need to be submitted at the same time.

The candidature will be confirmed only by verification of all the documents asked for.

The university can cancel the candidature if any discrepancy is found at any stage of admission.

If the candidates qualified through a grading system in the 10+2 examination, they need to score the required percentage of marks against the grades specified in the mark sheets.

Candidates of other universities or schools or institutions need to submit the School Leaving Certificate or migration certificate within three months from their admission date.

Students of Patha Bhavana and Siksha Satra, two schools of the university will be considered the integrated candidates.

After the admission of candidates coming from Patha Bhavana and Siksha Satra, the remaining seats will be offered to the external candidates. The external candidates will be categorized under UR, OBC, EWS, SC, ST, and PWD.

All the candidates will have to mandatorily pay the medical insurance fees for taking admission to this university.

During admission time, all the candidates need to produce a medical certificate issued by any registered hospital or doctor.
