POETIC DEVICES

Simile: Simile is a figure of speech that compares two unlike things using the words "like" or "as."

- > Ashen like that of corpse
- > Pale as a late winter's moon
- As old as

Metaphor: Metaphor is a comparison between two things that are otherwise unrelated.

- Bright topaz
- Clean clothes
- Bower quiet
- > Dreams
- > Morrow
- Flowery band
- Pall
- > Endless fountain of immortal drink
- Gloomy days
- O'er-darkened ways
- Immortal drink
- Merry children spilling
- > The flower of cities
- > voice of the country seems to complain
- > Ivory needle

Alliteration: Alliteration is the repetition of the same letter or sound at the beginning of words.

- > But after the airport's security check
- > Felt that old familiar ache
- > But all I said was see you soon
- we will count
- > we will all keep
- > not move our arms much
- we would all be
- > Sudden strangeness
- would not harm whales
- would look at his hurt hands
- would put on clean clothes
- > walk about with their brothers
- > what I want
- > I want no truck with death
- > If we were not so single minded
- > are we wreathing
- > a flowery band to bind us
- some shape of beauty
- Such the sun, the moon
- sprouting a shady boon
- > That for themselves
- > a cooling covert
- > The little old house was out with
- > A roadside stand that too pathetically pled,
- > wild berries in wooden quarts
- > golden squash with silver warts
- > in a beautiful mountain scene
- You have the money, but if you want to be mean
- party in power is said to be keeping

- > It is in the news that all these pitiful kin
- Greedy good doers
- beneficent beasts of prey
- > That waits all day in almost open prayer
- > squeal of brakes, the sound of a stopping car
- > one did stop, but only to plow up
- > And another to ask the way
- > ask the way to where it was bound
- > to put me gently out of my pain
- > Fingers Fluttering
- > weight of Uncle's wedding band
- her terrified hands

Symbolism: Symbolism is a literary device that refers to the use of symbols in a literary work.

- > Fishermen
- Whales
- > The man gathering salt
- Brothers
- his hurt hands
- Green wars
- wars with gas,
- wars with fire
- Clean clothes
- In the shade
- Ivory needle

Repetition: Repetition is when a single word or phrase is used multiple times in short succession for effect.

- > Smile and smile and smile
- > without rush without engines
- > wars with gas, wars with fire
- Life is what it is about
- > and health and quiet breathing
- Such the sun, the moon
- > The little old house was out with a little new shed
- with N turned wrong and S turned wrong
- > You have the money, but if you want to be mean
- how to sleep they sleep all day
- > Sometimes I feel myself I can
- > They couldn't ; they had none,
- No, in country money, the country scale of gain,
- I wonder how I should like you to come to me

Imagery: Imagery is used to make readers perceive things involving their five senses.

- > Young Trees sprinting ... their homes
- > A flowery band ... the earth
- > Such the sun ... grandeur of the dooms
- > An endless ... immortal drink
- > World of green
- Men beneath the tree

Personification: Personification is a poetic device where animals, plants or even inanimate objects, are given human qualities.

- > Young Trees sprinting
- > Face of the Earth
- The Earth can teach us

- Chivalric tiger
- Earth can teach us
- > A roadside stand that too pathetically pled,
- > The sadness that lurks near the open window there

Irony: A contrast between reality and expectation; between what is said and what is actually meant; between what appears to be true and the real truth.

➢ Green wars − Irony

Synecdoche: Synecdoche refers to a literary device in which a part of something is substituted for the whole.

her terrified hands

Oxymoron: A phrase that combines two words that seems to be the opposite of each other, such as a deafening silence.

Mighty dead

Hyperbole: A hyperbole is a rhetorical device that is mainly used to make something look and sound a lot better than it actually is. In other words, it can be said to be a form of exaggeration.

- Endless fountain
- > Massive weight

Pun: An amusing use of a word that can have two meanings or of different words that sound the same.

- ➤ Arms
- Ringed

Paradox: A situation or statement with two or more parts that seem strange or impossible together.

- Victory with no survivors
- Ringed with ordeals she was mastered by