

Going out for a Walk

---

Que.1. Based on your reading of the essay, prepare a write-up on the importance of going out for a walk [Marks :(6)]

Ans. Comprehensiveness of the content - 2

Organization - 2

Quality of language – 2

Que.2. Read the following excerpt and answer the questions that follow: [Marks :(6)]

‘Whenever I was with my friends in the country, I knew that at any moment, unless rain were actually falling, some man might suddenly say ‘Come out for a walk!’ in that sharp imperative tone which he would not dream of using it. People seem to think there is something inherently noble and virtuous in the desire to go for a walk

Pick out the word from the passage which means ‘commanding’.

What are the misconceptions people have with regard to walking?

What would keep the author and his friends from not going out for a walk in the country?

Ans. Comprehension - 2

Appropriateness - 2

Grammatical accuracy – 2

Que.3. You decide to submit an article for the school magazine on the topic ‘Exercise – A mind – body energiser’. Prepare the likely article [Marks :(6)]

Ans. Comprehensiveness of the content - 2

Organization - 2

Quality of language – 2

Que.4. A debate was conducted in your class on the topic ‘Walking alone is the best way to exercise.’ If you were to speak AGAINST the topic, list out five points you would present on the occasion [Marks :(5)]

Ans. Logical presentation - 2

Cohesiveness - 1

Language elements - 2