HNBGU UG Admission Process 2023

Admissions will be offered based on the score obtained in the CUET 2023 entrance examination. The University will commence the admission process for the candidates after the CUET 2023 results are announced. The merit list will be announced soon after the registration process. At that time, the merit list will be made available to all registered candidates. The merit list will include the names of those who have been shortlisted for the counselling process, as well as their rank. Furthermore, candidates will be invited to the counselling process based on their position on the admissions merit list.

Furthermore, the CUET participating universities will publish the CUET 2023 merit list. The merit list identifies candidates who have met the cut-off scores and rank and are eligible for counselling. Candidates should be aware that the minimum marks required for related disciplines vary depending on the university participating. Candidates selected from the CUET 2023 merit list for various UG programmes must attend an online/offline counselling session at a participating university. Finally, the final decision will be made by the admission selection committee.

Candidates seeking admission to UG courses at HNBGU must pass CUET 2023. CUET UG 2023 will be administered via computer-based testing (CBT). Candidates can apply for CUET through the HNBGU portal or by going to @cuetsamarth.ac.in. Few courses provide direct admission. The majority of courses will be admitted based on the CUET merit list. Some important points are mentioned below:

CUET 2023 is organised into four sections.

Candidates must select three languages (maximum)

Candidates seeking admission to BA, BSc (Yoga & Naturopathy) programmes must take the General Test.

Candidates for BTech and BSc must have Physics, Chemistry, and Biology/Mathematics as compulsory subjects.

After the CUET 2023 merit list is exhausted, candidates who choose BTech will be counselled based on their JEE main merit score.

Candidates admitted to BTech (Lateral entry in all branches) at HNBGU will be chosen based on the CUET 2023 Merit list.
